"Auntie Char was a very gorgeous woman, and she was very kind to everyone in her path even if they had been evil to her. She was beautiful and a day will not go by that I don't miss her. She will greatly be missed but she is in a way better place"

Love kodi

"Let not your hearts be troubled believe in God. Also in yourself. In my father's house are many more rooms. If it were not so would I have told you that God had prepared Auntie Char for heaven. Also you know the way she will be going"

John 14:1-4

Our Departed Mother

She always leaned to watch for us
Anxious if we were late
In winter, by the window,
In summer by the gate,
And though we mocked her tenderly,
Who had such foolish care,
The long way home
would seem more safe,
Because she waited there.
Her thoughts were all so full of us,
She never could forget,
And so I think that where she is,
She must be waiting yet.
Waiting, till we come to her,
Anxious if we are late,
Watching from heaven's window
Leaning from heaven's gate.

Charlene "Char" was born on November 20, 1939, in Madison, WI to Clair and Ellen (Gohde) Bartels. They made their home in Wisconsin where she started school at the Windfall Country School. They moved to Hanes, ND where Charlene continued school and they then moved to Sidney, MT where she graduated from Sidney High School. On December 1, 1957, Charlene was united in marriage to David McIntyre in Fairview, MT. They made homes in the area surrounding Sidney, until settling in and raising their 5 children, Ramona, Rhonda, David, Fred, and Danny, in the house everyone knows as Gramma's House. Charlene's husband, David, died in a vehicle accident on May 4, 1974, near Miles City, MT and she has remained in Sidney. Charlene worked as a waitress in several restaurants around town, spreading her infectious smile, kindness and love to all whom she came in contact.

In 1978, Charlene met Randell Becker and have been together ever since, loving the life they lived together. They spent time fishing with a bobber, boating, camping, caring for her dogs, and surrounding themselves with love of their families, and many many, animals. Charlene especially enjoyed garage saling.
